

Mildura Winemaking Seminar

Thursday, 9 June 2016

Agriculture Victoria, Melaleuca Room
Corner Eleventh Street and Koorlong Avenue, Irymple VIC 3498

The Murray Valley Winegrowers Inc. will be holding an information forum prior to lunch in the Acacia room at Agriculture Victoria Irymple and you are most welcome to attend. If you wish to attend the morning session and the BBQ lunch then please register your interest online in addition to the winemaking seminar.

Time	Agenda	Presenter
Murray Valley Winegrowers Inc. Information Forum - Acacia Room
8:30 - 10:30	Industry recovery - fact or fiction	Peter Bailey, Wine Australia
	Water worry - will there be enough	Andrew Shields, Goulburn Murray Water
10:30 - 11:30	Morning tea
11:30 - 12:30	Get the contract terms right - new law before next harvest	Gabrielle Ford, ACCC
12:30 - 13:30	BBQ lunch
AWRI Winemaking Seminar - Melaleuca Room
13:30 - 13:40	Welcome and introduction	Con Simos, AWRI
13:40 - 14:05	Maximising quality during bulk wine transportation	Simon Nordestgaard, AWRI
14:05 - 14:30	The truth about sulfur dioxide	Eric Wilkes, AWRI
14:30 - 14:55	What are the relationships between grape chemical composition, grape allocation grade and final wine style?	Paul Smith, AWRI
14:55 - 15:35	Get the best out of your winery using 'lean production'	Eric Wilkes, AWRI
	Interactive session

Booking is essential

Register here

For more information, please contact:
AWRI Events Ph: (08) 8313 6600 Email: events@awri.com.au

No cost to attend (morning tea and lunch included)