

Building resilience and sustainability in the grape and wine sector

9am – 2.30pm, Tuesday 11 November 2014
Rymill Hall, Penola

PROGRAM

9.00 Session 1 - Climate change – Impacts and opportunities for the Australian wine industry
Tim Flannery The Climate Council of Australia	Keynote address to the wine industry
Peter Dry AWRI	Extreme and increasing temperatures – effects on grapes and wine
Panel session with Tim Flannery, Peter Dry, Pete Bissell (Balnaves Coonawarra) and James Freckleton (Yalumba)
10.55 Morning tea
Session 2 – Climate change - a global perspective
Phil Cohn RAMP Carbon	Where does the wine industry sit in terms of Australian climate policy and the global carbon market?
Lily Lim-Camacho CSIRO	Are wine consumers interested in climate adaptation?
12.10 Session 3 – Climate past, present and future
Darren Ray Bureau of Meteorology	How has the weather changed across the Limestone Coast?
Leanne Webb CSIRO	What will the climate look like across the Limestone Coast in the future?
13.00 Lunch
Session 4 – Adaptation options for the wine industry
Liz Riley Vitibit	Can we protect grapes and vines with sunscreen?
Paul Petrie Treasury Wine Estates	Addressing harvest logistics using pruning
Mardi Longbottom	Where to from here? Close at 2.30

This is a free event and includes morning tea and lunch.

Registration for this event is essential.

Please confirm your attendance here before Tuesday 28 October.

All enquiries can be directed to the AWRI on 08 8313 6600 or enquiries@awri.com.au.

This event is supported by funding from the Australian Government and the Australian Grape and Wine Authority.