

Alternative Varieties—

emerging options
for a changing environment

Presented by Peter Dry, AWRI

Monday, December 11

Sunraysia Cellar Door

125 Lime Avenue, Mildura
(Corner Tenth Street & Lime Avenue)

Bookings essential

Murray Valley Winegrowers
5021 3911 or mvw@mvwi.com.au

Free to attend

Morning tea, lunch & afternoon tea provided

The Australian Wine
Research Institute

PROGRAM

| | |
|-------|--|
| 8.50 | Registration |
| 9.00 | Welcome & Introduction |
| 9.15 | Why do we need new varieties for our region? |
| 10.00 | Profiles of 10 white wine varieties with potential in the Murray-Darling/Swan Hill regions |
| 10.40 | Morning Tea |
| 11.10 | Tasting of 6 white wines from varieties grown in inland regions |
| 12.00 | Profiles of 10 red wine varieties with potential in the Murray-Darling/Swan Hill regions |
| 12.45 | Lunch |
| 1.30 | Tasting of 6 red wines from varieties grown in Inland regions |
| 2.10 | How do we get new varieties into our region? How do we know that we have the right variety? |
| 2.50 | Afternoon Tea |
| 3.20 | Case study—Ashley Ratcliff of Ricca Terra Farms, Riverland SA |
| 4.20 | Closing remarks & discussion |