

Specialist library services for the grape and wine sector

Winemaking, viticulture and health information resources

The John Fornachon Memorial Library at the AWRI holds the largest collection of grape and wine technical resources in the southern hemisphere. The Library's collection comprises over 83,000 records, including books, journals, reprints, eBooks, newsletters, regulations, standards and statistics.

Access the collection and place an order

The online catalogue enables an easy search of our collection. Access is available via the AWRI Library homepage. To search the catalogue, enter a keyword and submit your query. Items can be ordered from the results by completing the order form and copyright declaration. Delivery is via email or post. AWRI staff publications can also be ordered from the AWRI website.

Loans

Books and audiovisual materials are available for loan to grapegrowers and winemakers who pay the Winegrapes Levy or the Grape Research Levy. Items can be requested via the online catalogue and will be posted to you. The standard loan period is four weeks. Alternatively, you can visit the library in person or contact the library directly on (08) 8313 6600 or infoservices@awri.com.au.

The Grape and Wine eBook Collection

The Library has recently launched a purpose-built collection of eBooks for the Australian grape and wine sector. Titles are available to read within an internet browser, but eBooks can also be borrowed and downloaded to a computer or mobile device. Access to this collection is available from the AWRI Library homepage.

Literature searches

Do you need a comprehensive search on a specific topic? Contact the library directly at infoservices@awri.com.au with your request for a specialist information search. A list of references will be forwarded to you, from which you can select and request full text copies.

Online image collection

Search the AWRI's Online Image Collection database to find wine industry images. This searchable database contains more than 3,000 images. Image costs are determined according to the category of use.
